Kingdom to facilitate safe evacuation of Bahrainis in Ukraine

TDT | Manama

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs is closely following up on the situation of Bahraini citizens present in Ukraine amid the current security conditions there.

The ministry said that with regard to its statement issued on February 12 urging Bahrainis to leave Ukraine, it stresses Bahrain's keenness to facilitate the necessary procedures for the safe evacuation of its citizens through the available ports as soon as possible.

The ministry called upon the citizens wishing to leave Ukraine or seeking any assistance to call its Follow-up Office on 0097317227555.

Arab League 'great concern'

The Arab League yesterday said it is following with "great concern" developments in Ukraine and "their serious military and humanitarian consequences."

The organisation, which held an emergency meeting yesterday at Egypt's request, said it supports "all efforts aimed at resolving the crisis through dialogue and diplomacy in a manner that preserves the security and safety of peoples in this important region of the world.'

Bahrain Chamber calls all members to renew their membership and update their data ahead of the elections for the Chamber's (30th) Board of Directors

The Elections Committee for the (30th) Board of Directors of the Bahrain Chamber calls all BCCI members to renew their membership and pay the annual subscription fee and any other financial obligations to the Chamber, in addition to visiting the Client Care Department, should they need to have their names added or edited in the Voters' List or to update their information, to be able to exercise their right in voting in the elections of the 30th Board of Directors of the Bahrain Chamber, scheduled to take place on Saturday 19th March 2022 at Bahrain International Exhibition and Convention Center. Receiving applications for insertion in the Voters' List and data amendment will continue until Monday 14th March 2022 at the new Client Care Department located on the ground floor of Bahrain Chamber's Building "Bait Al Tiiiar."

The accuracy of a voter's data in the Voters' List is the sole responsibility of the voter him/herself, according to Article (51) of the Chamber's Executive Bylaw issued by Resolution No. (156) for the year 2013, which stipulates that members whose names were negligently dropped from the Voters' List or those with errors in their recorded data, may appeal to have their names included and/or corrected, as the Elections Committee will not allow any voter whose data is not available or incomplete on the Voters' List to participate in the elections. Voters' participation in the elections will be according to their data as in the Voters' List, which should match their data in the Commercial Registration at the Ministry of Industry, Commerce and Tourism.

The Elections Committee for the (30th) Board of Directors of the Bahrain Chamber spearheaded by Mr. Adel Hussain Al Maskati, held last Thursday its 8th meeting, and endorsed allowing all voters to have access to the car parking spaces at Bahrain International Exhibition and Convention Center, in a bid to facilitate the elections process. Noting the importance of adhering to all precautionary measures as per the national taskforce for combating the Coronavirus (Covid-19), which are as follow:

- 1. Wearing face masks at all times
- 2. Practicing social distancing
- 3. Anyone with respiratory symptoms will not be allowed
- 4. Refraining from crowding at entrances and exits points
- 5. Refraining from shaking hands

It is in line with all precautionary measures that the Elections Committee decided not to designate any spaces for the candidates inside Bahrain International Exhibition and Convention Center, nor allow candidates' advertisements on the elections day.

ourage and persistence remain the vital words for 23-year-old Ashly Prem, a Bahrain resident, who is trapped in one of the war zones of Ukraine.

The Indian national, a former student of Asian School and Indian School Bahrain, told The Daily Tribune that she along with her fellow classmates are being sheltered at the subway station in Kharkiv, which "is considered safe from attacks".

"Initially, I was a bit worried as the loud sounds of explosions rocked Kharkiv. But now if you really ask me, I am not afraid amidst a whole nation facing a huge challenge.

"We have to summon courage when placed in such situations," said the fifth year medical student at Karazin Kharkiv National University.

Ashly said the battlefield in Kharkiv has intensified with the Ukrainian forces putting up a great resistance against the invading Russians.

A picture instantly captured on her mobile showed smoke billowing from a neighboring building after the site was targeted by Russian forces. "These scenes are horrifying and the victims are innocent people, who have nothing to do with politics. We want this fight to end and peace set in soon."

News in brief

♦ Home rental company Airbnb Inc (ABNB.O) said yesterday its non-profit arm Airbnb.org would offer free, temporary housing for up to 100,000 refugees fleeing Ukraine. Chief Executive Brian Officer Brian Chesky and Joe Gebbia, the chairman of Airbnb.org, have sent letters to leaders of Poland, Romania, Germany and Hungary offering help to house the refugees. The countries share borders with Ukraine. At least 300,000 Ukrainian refugees 100,000 Ukrainian have entered the European Union so far after Russia's invasion of the country, and the bloc needs to prepare for millions more, senior

EU and French officials have said. Airbnb.org, which provides temporary stays for people during crisis, will work closely with governments to help address needs in each country including by providing longer-term stays.

The earlier start was announced after Russia's invasion of Ukraine on Thursday gave rise to worries that Russian gas supplies to Europe could be cut. Poland and Lithuania had been an discussing early start to the project for weeks amid the fears of energy supply disruption, senior government sources told Reuters.

♦ Iran said yesterday efforts to revive a 2015 nuclear deal could succeed if the United States took a political decision to meet Tehran's remaining demands, as months of negotiations enter what one Iranian diplomat called a "now or never" stage. Iran's foreign ministry spokesman identified the remaining outstanding issues as: the extent to which sanctions would be rolled back, providing guarantees that the United States will not quit the pact again, and resolving questions over issues unresolved uranium traces found at several old but undeclared sites in Iran. All parties involved in the talks say progress has been made toward the restoration of the pact to curb Tehran's nuclear programme in exchange for sanctions relief, which the United States abandoned in 2018. But both Tehran and Washington have cautioned there are still some significant differences to overcome.

Bolsonaro won't condemn Putin, says Brazil will remain neutral over invasion

♦ Brazilian President Jair Bolsonaro on Sunday declined to condemn Russian President Vladimir Putin's invasion of Ukraine, while departing from his government's official stance at the United Nations to say Brazil would remain neutral. Bolsonaro, a far-right populist, recently snubbed US entreaties not to visit Putin in Moscow ahead of the invasion, and angered Western allies by saying he was "in solidarity with Russia," without elaborating. On Friday, Brazil voted for a draft U.N. Security Council resolution that would have denounced the Russian invasion of Ukraine, despite reluctance by Bolsonaro. Russia vetoed the resolution.

She added, "I think it takes an actor such as Rosy, with such intelligence and poise to communicate these kinds of complex emotions; I can't wait to work with her to bring Jean to life."

Speaking about her role, McEwen said, "I'm so grateful and proud to be part of this project, it's a story that needs to be told and heard by everyone."

'Blue Jean' is Oakley's debut feature and will also mark McEwen's first leading feature
