

IHCL signs deal to establish two Taj hotels in Bahrain

Part of India's largest hospitality company's strategy to expand footprints in Middle East

Mumbai

The Indian Hotels Company Limited (IHCL), India's largest hospitality company, announced the signing of a luxury hotel and boutique resort in the Kingdom of Bahrain, both under its iconic Taj brand.

These greenfield projects mark a significant milestone as IHCL becomes the first Indian hospitality company to establish a presence in the Kingdom of Bahrain, further cementing its footprint in the Middle East.

Mr. Puneet Chhatwal, Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer, IHCL, stated, "We are pleased to announce two hotels in the island nation of Bahrain in line with our strategy of growing Taj's presence in key gateway cities of the world. With a portfolio of seven hotels including four under development in the Middle East, these hotels will extend our presence in the MENA region."

He added, "We are delighted to partner with Kingdom Projects to introduce the iconic Taj with its world-class hospitality, elevating Bahrain's tourism landscape."

Nestled amid picturesque surroundings, the Taj resort in Hamala will feature 251 luxurious rooms, each thoughtfully designed to reflect the laid-back serenity of the island.

Luxury offerings

The resort will offer luxury offerings, including an all-day dining restaurant, two specialty restaurants, alongside a swimming pool and exclusive beach club.

Curated to create an atmosphere of relaxation and rejuvenation, the resort will additionally encompass wellness areas such as a state-of-the-art gym and tranquil spa. The resort's 1,200 sq.mt banquet facilities will cater to grand events and celebrations, making it a key
