The 42-year-old reality TV star - who has been married three times - admitted she still holds out some hope that she will find true love but says she is happy to be single for a while.

Kim told Gwyneth Paltrow's Goop podcast: "I feel, honestly, my last marriage was my first real. The first one, I just don't know what was happening. The second one, I felt like I wanted to be married so badly because all my friends were at that place and that's where I should have been. I didn't accept that that just wasn't where I was. "Now I feel like I will definitely take my time. I would be okay [with] a forever partnership as well. I'm taking my time. I really do want to be single for a few years.
