Luisa, Georgii claim ITF singles titles

Winners with officials after the awarding

● The pairs of Simona Cucu-Aleksandra Rozkalne and Emre Atlamis-Doruk Calikoglu win doubles titles

● Georgii Arakelian, Doruk Calikoglu both come away with gold and silver medals from Bahrain ITF event

TDI | Manama

Luisa Fusil and Georgii Arakelian were yesterday crowned singles champions in the third Bahrain ITF Juniors 2023 tournament, which came to a close at the Bahrain Tennis Federation (BTF) hard courts in Isa Town.

Luisa, from Slovenia, claimed the girls' singles crown after defeating Sude Ulueren of Turkey 7-6 (1), 6-1 in their final match, while third-seed Georgii won his title after battling back from a set down to beat Doruk Calikoglu of Turkey 3-6, 6-1, 6-3.

Meanwhile, the competition's doubles titles were also secured.

The third-seeded duo of Romanian Simona Cucu and Latvian Aleksandra Rozkalne won the girls' championship, and the Turkish pair of Emre Atlamis and Doruk captured the boys' title.

Simona and Aleksandra upset Alina Sogomonyan and Esila Toklu of Turkey 6-3, 6-3, while Emre and Doruk overcame second seeds Georgii and Daniil Karpukhin 6-4, 6-1.

Both Georgii and Doruk were the only two players to end the competition with two medals.

Following all the finals, the winners and runners-up were presented their respective trophies and medals in an awarding ceremony attended by BTF officials.

The just-concluded tournament was the first of three straight ITF events being hosted by the Kingdom in succession. The second, which begins tomorrow, is also a J30 event, while the third, a J60 competition, will begin on 13 November.

Bahraini cyclist Abdullah Ali was crowned champion of the 3rd edition of Nasser bin Hamad Amateur Cycling Tour yesterday after being officially awarded the yellow and red jerseys for the best time and highest points.

Mohammed Aqeel was handed the blue jersey for under 23 years old, and cyclist Mohammed Khatim was given the green jersey for over 40 years old in the event organised under the patronage of His Highness Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa, Representative of His Majesty the King for Humanitarian Works and Youth Affairs.

Cyclist Adel Barbary of Dubai Police team achieved the orange and grey jerseys, and was crowned the champion at the GCC and National Team level. UAE cyclist Mohammed Abdullah Al Hammadi of Al Wathbah team won the purple jersey for under 23 years old, and cyclist Vladimir bagged the pink jersey for over 40 years old.

The fourth and final stage took place yesterday, covering a distance of 80 kilometres.

The winners were honoured in the presence of Dr. Abdulrahman Sadiq Askar, CEO of the General Sports Authority, Shaikh Khalid bin Hamad bin Ahmed Al Khalifa, President of the Bahrain Cycling Federa-

Abdullah Ali of Bahrain Giants triumphed in the fourth stage among Bahrainis, while Hassan Aqeel of Bahrain Amateurs came second, and his brother from the same team, Mohammed Aqeel, came third.

At the GCC and National Team level, Moroccan cyclist Said Aboluchi of the Turk team won the fourth stage, while UAE's cyclist Said Khair of Dubai Police team finished second, and Syrian cyclist Mazen Hussain of Xstream Sport team came third.

In the 10 km disabled race, Nasser Al Marisi achieved first place, Mousa Al Sayegh second, and Mohammed Habeib third.

At the women's level, Bahraini cyclist Fatima Murad came first in the Bahraini women's race, Zakia Al Sadah second, and May Al Hajji third.

Chinese cyclist Lin won first place at the race dedicated for GCC National Team and resident women's cyclists, followed by American cyclist Casey Pittman and British cyclist Emma Baker in second and third respectively. In the individual race for Bahrainis, Mohammed Mubarak achieved first place, Essa Saleh second and Sayed Ahmed Al Kamal third.

HOLDERS Al Hala advance in HM the King's Cup

TDI | Manama

Holders Al Hala, Al Ettihad and Busaiteen all advanced last night to the round of 16 of the 2023/2024 His Majesty the King's Cup football tournament.

Hala made it through with a 3-0 win over Tadamun, Ettihad advanced with a 5-4 win on penalties against Al Najma after the match remained goalless at the end of regular time, and Busaiteen marched on with a 3-0 win over Bouri.

The victorious trio joined

East Riffa and A'ali as teams to qualify for the next stage.

In the round of 16, Hala continue their title defence and take on defending league champions Al Khaldiya, Ettihad face Al Shabab, and Busaiteen take on Sitra. The remaining games in the opening round of the single-elimination tournament see Um Al Hassam go against Budaiya, Al Ettifaq face Etehad Al Reef, and Bahrain Club play Galali.

The HM the King's Cup is the richest football competition in the Kingdom, with the winners taking home BD100,000 in prize money and BD50,000 going to the runners-up.

In the 2022/2023 His Majesty the King's Cup, Hala were crowned champions after a heart-stopping 6-5 victory over Al Ahli in a hugely thrilling penalty shootout in the final.

The decider extended to an amazing 10 spot kicks per squad. The match had ended goalless after 90 minutes and the score remained nil-nil after 30 minutes of extra-time.

Muharrraq claim resounding win over Al Najma

TDI | Manama

Muharrraq posted a convincing 93-78 victory over Al Najma last night in their week three game of the 2023/2024 Zain Bahrain Basketball League.

Muharrraq were up 67-60 at the end of the third quarter, and they extended their lead in the fourth when they went ahead by as many as 16 points late on.

Julius Coles Jr scored 29 points while Tyler Wilkerson added 28 while taking down 12 rebounds. Skipper Bader Abdulla Malabes added 14, including three three-pointers, as Muharrraq's only other player in double figures.

For Najma, Elijah Robinson scored 26 to go with nine rebounds and eight assists. Joshua Caldwell chipped in with 16 in the defeat.

With the result, Muharrraq claimed their second victory in as many outings while Najma suffered their first loss after winning their opening two contests.

League action continues tonight with defending champions Manama playing Isa Town at 5.30pm, followed t 7.30pm by Al Hala playing Samaheej.
