

Bahrain praises Saudi F1 Grand Prix success

● Reflects Kingdom's capabilities to hold international sporting event

TDT | Manama

His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa and His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, sent cables of congratulations to Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques King Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud on

HM the King

HRH the Crown Prince and Prime Minister

King Salman

HRH Prince Mohammed

the success of the first edition of the Formula 1 STC Saudi Arabian Grand Prix, held at the Jeddah Corniche Circuit.

HM the King and HRH the Crown Prince and Prime Minister praised the efforts made in organising this international sporting event, which reflects the capabilities of Saudi Arabia and highlights its position in sports.

They expressed his sincere wishes for Saudi Arabia and its people to more success in all fields under the leadership of the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques.

His Majesty and HRH Prince Salman sent similar cables to the Crown Prince, Deputy Prime Minister, and Minister of Defense of Saudi Arabia, HRH Prince Mohammed bin Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, noting the good organisation and preparation for this global race.

They praised HRH Prince Mohammed's support to sports, which enhances the position of the Saudi Arabia as a preferred destination for various major international sports and events, wishing Saudi Arabia continued progress, prosperity.

Cooperation to enhance communication and media goals

Shura Council Chairman Ali bin Saleh Al Saleh received National Communication Center (NCC) CEO Yousef Mohammed Al BinKhalil. The meeting discussed cooperation and ways to enhance communication and media goals. Al Saleh praised the NCC's efforts in highlighting the Kingdom's achievements and stressed on their contributions in developing official media since its establishment five years ago. Al BinKhalil expressed his appreciation to the council's keenness to modernise the law system in the Kingdom and enhance the democratic process under the leadership of His Majesty the King.

Attiya receives royal praise for breaking marathon world record

TDT | Manama

His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa and His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, yesterday congratulated Second-Lieutenant Abdulla Al Sayed Attiya, from the Royal Guard at the Bahrain Defence Force (BDF), following his success in breaking the world record at the ADNOC Abu Dhabi Marathon, and entering the Guinness Book of World Records.

Attiya finished the race in three hours, 40 minutes and seven seconds, breaking the world record of three hours, 49 minutes and 21 seconds, held by a British athlete since 2009.

The exploit of Attiya, who graduated from the UK-based

Thumbs-up from Attiya during the race

Royal Military Academy Sandhurst, is a source of pride and inspiration for Bahraini youth, as he ran the entire marathon in full military uniform and was recognised by the Guinness

Book of World Records for that unique achievement.

HM the King and HRH Prince Salman affirmed that Attiya's accomplishment is a catalyst for Bahraini athletes to continue earning the country more achievements, wishing him further success in the coming competitions.

Attiya extended deepest thanks and gratitude to HM the King and HRH Prince Salman for their unwavering care for the citizens and residents.

He paid tribute to National Security Advisor and Royal Guard Commander, Major-General HH Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa, for his constant support, leading to achieving positive results for the kingdom at various external competitions.

LMRA Chief Executive receives lawmaker

Labour Market Regulatory Authority (LMRA) Chief Executive Jamal Al Alawi has affirmed the importance of cooperation between the legislative and executive branches to maximise achievements and cater to the needs of the nation and citizens. During a meeting with member of the Representatives Council, Ibrahim Al Nefei, Al Alawi reviewed the services provided by the authority to the subscribers, employers and employees. Discussions also focused on the legislative and legal mechanisms adopted by the authority and the role of the legislative council in upgrading laws and regulations to cope with the economic and labour changes and protect the kingdom from any repercussions resulting from them.

Supporting women's advancement and family stability

Supreme Council for Women (SCW) Secretary General Hala Al Ansari received yesterday Assistant President of Sultan Qaboos University for International Cooperation, Chairperson of the Board of Directors of Children First Association, Her Highness Dr Muna bint Fahad Al Said. They discussed exchanging experiences between both countries and the best practices supporting women's advancement and family stability. Al Ansari lauded the efforts of Oman to upgrade the educational system amid the global economic developments. She also praised the care given by the sultanate to the advancement of women by laying the legal and legislative foundations to support their full and equal participation in all fields.

HUAWEI MateBook 13s | 14s

2.5K 90Hz HUAWEI FullView Display* | 11th Gen Intel® H-Series High Performance Processor
All-scenario Devices Collaboration

Product color, shape, interface and functions are for reference only. The actual product may vary.
 *HUAWEI FullView Display refers to standard display style with narrow bezel width and a high screen-to-body ratio.
 The HUAWEI MateBook 13s and HUAWEI MateBook 14s support a screen refresh rate of 90Hz (or 120Hz).
 This feature is only supported by certain Huawei laptops running HarmonyOS 2 (or later), and certain Huawei PCs running PC Manager 11.1 (or later).
 CEC211995H101K