Russia has indicated that falconry has evolved into a global industry that drives economic growth in many countries, boosts purchasing power, and stimulates demand for sports tourism related to falconry's heritage.

These factors motivate intensified conservation efforts for gyrfalcons, deeper partnerships with countries like Bahrain, and the development of joint projects to study bird populations, understand habitat sustainability, and support breeding initiatives.

The hope is that finalising key aspects of the framework declaration for gyrfalcon conservation and implementing international projects will help restore and preserve these shared traditions.

Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus told a press conference that health workers need freedom of movement in Gaza to administer the vaccines, saying that a ceasefire or at least a few days of calm, was essential to protect polio vaccines which will be administered in the coming weeks," he said. On July 30, the health ministry in Hamas-run Gaza declared the Palestinian territory to be a "polio epidemic zone", blaming the reappearance of the virus on Israel's military offensive since the October 7 Hamas attacks and the resulting destruction of health facilities. The ministry said the CPV2 strain of the virus was detected in wastewater samples taken in the Khan Yunis region in the south of the strip, as well as in areas of central Gaza.

▼srael and Hamas are still Lclose to a ceasefire deal, the White House insisted Wednesday, despite growing fears of a regional war following the assassination of a key Hamas leader.

Washington is still engaged in "intense diplomacy" to prevent further escalation after Iran threatened revenge for the killing of Hamas political leader Ismail Haniyeh in Tehran.

Hamas has named Yahya Sinwar -- the alleged mastermind of the October 7 attack on Israel -- as its new leader, sparking fears the torturous negotiations have become even more difficult.

"We are as close as we think we have ever been" to a deal for a Gaza ceasefire and the release of hostages held by Hamas, National Security Council spokesman John Kirby told reporters.

US officials have said on several occasions in recent weeks that a deal is close, while urging both Israel and Hamas to accept the current proposal which would lead to an initial six-week truce.

Bangladesh court acquits Yunus on appeal, overturns labour conviction: lawyer

AFP | Dhaka, Bangladesh

A Bangladeshi court yesterday overturned a conviction against Mohammed Yunus, a day before the Nobel winner is set to return to lead a caretaker government.

"Professor Muhammad Yunus and three of his colleagues have been acquitted of labour charges," one of his lawyers, Khaja Tanvir Ahmed, told AFP.

"The court earlier this year sentenced them to six months in prison." He was sentenced in January for the labour charge, but immediately bailed pending appeal and later travelled abroad. All four had denied the charges and, with courts accused of rubber-stamping decisions by ousted leader Sheikh Hasina's government, the case was criticised as politically motivated by watchdogs including Amnesty International. "The labour court granted an appeal, and acquitted them," Ahmed said.

My face was everywhere in 2023, says Jenna Ortega

Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

Jenna Ortega "got sick" of seeing herself "everywhere" in 2023.

The 21-year-old actress enjoyed a meteoric rise on the back of the success of 'Wednesday', the hit Netflix series, and Jenna can understand why the public might've become sick of seeing her face.

The Hollywood star told Vanity Fair magazine: "My face was everywhere ... so it's like, fair enough, if I were opening my phone and Jenna Ortega

I saw the same girl with some stupid quote or something, I would be over it too."

Despite this, Jenna believes that actresses are judged more harshly than their male counterparts.

The 'Beetlejuice Beetlejuice' star said: "I feel like we definitely need to practice what we preach a little bit more ... Women have to be princesses. They have to be elegant and classy and so kind and ...then when they're outspoken, they can't be tamed and they're a mess."

> Meanwhile, Michael Keaton - Jenna's 'Beetlejuice Beetlejuice' co-star - recently heaped praise on the actress, describ-ing her as a "really special" talent.
