Sean Penn 'startled' by experience at Ukrainian border

IANS | Los Angeles

scar-winning actor Sean Penn recently returned to the US after spending time at the Ukrainian border, and shared his experience of the refugee crisis that's taking place in eastern Europe.

The 61-year-old star, who has been filming a documentary for Vice Films, told 'Anderson Cooper 360': "We had the luxury of being able to abandon a rented vehicle on a startling thing to me; it was mostly women and children, some in groups and some just a mother and her child, in almost all of those cars. "In some cases, the father was dropping them off and returning, because we know that from 18 to 60, men are not to leave, they're to stay in the resistance against Russia."

More than a million people are believed to have fled Ukraine since the start of the Russian invasion, reports.
