

HM the King

HRH Prince Salman

Bahrain congratulates Spain on National Day

TDT | Manama

His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa and His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, sent cables of congratulations to His Majesty Felipe VI of Spain, on his country's National Day.

HM King Hamad and HRH Prince Salman wished King Felipe health and happiness for the people of Spain further progress and prosperity. HRH the Crown Prince and Prime Minister sent a similar cable to Prime Minister Pedro Sanchez.

HM the King sent a cable of congratulations to President Teodoro Obiang Nguema Mbasogo of Equatorial Guinea, on his country's Independence Day.

His Majesty wished good health and happiness to President Mbasogo on the national occasion.

Bahrain-Angola financial and economic cooperation

Finance and National Economy Minister Shaikh Salman bin Khalifa Al Khalifa received the newly appointed Ambassador of Angola, residing in Abu Dhabi Albin Malungu. The Minister congratulated the Ambassador on his new post, wishing him success on his diplomatic duties and that he will enhance the cooperation between the two countries. They discussed ways to promote cooperation in the financial and economic fields and other topics of interest.

Industrial and commercial ties

Industry and Commerce Minister Zayed Rashid Al Zayani received the Ambassador of Angola, Albin Malungu. The meeting reviewed topics of common interest. The Minister reviewed the bilateral relations and developments at all levels. He noted the importance of developing relations in the industrial and commercial fields. The Ambassador praised the Ministry's efforts towards strengthening cooperation between the two countries in all fields and serve interest.

Bahrain-Algeria relations

Advisor to His Majesty the King for Media Affairs Nabeel bin Yacoub Al Hamer received Algerian Ambassador to Bahrain Abdelhamid Ahmed Khoja. Al Hamer praised the deep Bahraini-Algerian relations at all levels, including the media field. He praised the Ambassador's efforts to develop cooperation and wished him success in his diplomatic duties. The Ambassador expressed his pride in the distinguished relations between Bahrain and Algeria and his keenness to support and strengthen them in various fields.

Royal trust on RHF humanitarian work

HH Shaikh Nasser hails HM King and HRH Prince Salman support for foundation's initiatives

TDT | Manama

The Royal Humanitarian Foundation (RHF) has extended thanks and appreciation to His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa for his constant support for humanitarian work and unwavering care for orphans, widows and all social sectors in order to provide decent life for all.

His Majesty is the Honorary President of the RHF.

HM the King's Personal Representative for Humanitarian Work and Youth Affairs, His Highness Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa, praised HM the King's kind gestures towards brotherly and friendly countries and peoples.

It reflects the fundamental stances of the Kingdom's leadership, government and people towards various countries, within HM's efforts to consolidate global solidarity, based on the fraternal and humanitarian bonds between Bahrain and various peoples of the world, HH Shaikh Nasser noted.

He also extended deepest thanks and gratitude to HM King Hamad following the issuance of a Royal Order of restructuring the RHF's Board of Trustees, under HH Shaikh Nasser's chairmanship.

Royal expectations

HH Shaikh Nasser pledged that everyone shall do their utmost to live up to the royal expectations, and achieve HM the King's visions on ensuring the welfare of the Bahraini people, alleviating the living burdens of families and developing the performance of the RHF.

He also commended the constant support of the government, led by His Royal Highness Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, the Crown Prince and Prime Minister, to the RHF.

HH Shaikh Nasser was speaking while chairing at HH's Office yesterday the meeting of the RHF's Board of Trustees.

RHF Secretary-General, Dr

HH Shaikh Nasser chairs RHF's board meeting

“
HM the King's kind gestures towards brotherly and friendly countries and peoples reflect the fundamental stances of the Kingdom's leadership, government and people towards various countries, within HM's efforts to consolidate global solidarity, based on the fraternal and humanitarian bonds between Bahrain and various peoples of the world

His Highness Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa, HM the King's Personal Representative for Humanitarian Work and Youth Affairs

Mustafa Al Sayed Al Ameen, lauded HM the King's unwavering support for the RHF's work, praising HH Shaikh Nasser's constant follow-up and creative leadership.

He also updated the meeting on the strategic and investment projects implemented by the RHF in Bahrain and abroad, as well as its efforts to deliver support and services to orphans, widows and all needy sectors in the kingdom.

Members of the RHF's board praised the royal directives and the constant support enjoyed by the RHF from HM the King and the government.

They commended HH Shaikh Nasser's major role in developing the RHF's services, in line with the aspirations of HM the King.

Contributions

HH Shaikh Nasser congratulated the board members on the precious royal trust bestowed upon them by appointing them as members of the RHF's Board of Trustees, commending the efforts of their predecessors and their contributions to implementing HM the King's directives to deliver humanitarian work in Bahrain and abroad, as well as develop the RHF's work.

He expressed his confidence in the ability of the members of the new board to bring about more achievements, provide assistance to various sectors of society, and project the kingdom's humanitarian image and humanitarian stances to all.

HH Shaikh Nasser directed to continue implementing HM the King's directives to carry out humanitarian work with creativity and provide distinguished and comprehensive care for orphans, widows and all deserving groups in the kingdom, in addition to contributing to alleviating the suffering of peoples in brotherly and friendly countries, based on the human duty that our true teachings of the Islamic religion.

Letter-writing contest winners

The winners of the 'My Favorite Teacher' letter writing contest are awarded with cash award worth $600 and trophies at a ceremony held at the Laurels Centre for Global Education. Above, Abdul Jaleel Abdulla, the Director of Laurels, Dr Ashraf Labana, Principal of Alia National School, along with the winners from New Millennium School, Alia National School, Sacred Heart School, Indian School, Al Mahad Day Boarding School and the Asian School.