Surge in viral fever, flu among children as winter chill sets in

Health experts stress importance of flu vaccination and preventive measures to combat rising illnesses

Zahra Ayaz

TDT | Manama

ith the onset of colder nights and a drop in daytime temperatures, the number of cases involving viral fever and flu-like symptoms has witnessed a significant rise among children.

As concern grows, medical professionals are urging parents to take proactive measures to protect their children's health during the winter season.

According to leading pediatricians, the foremost and most effective method of safeguarding against the flu is through an annual flu vaccine for both children and adults.

Nations start negotiations over global plastics treaty Nairobi, Kenya

Nations grappling with the plastic "suffocating" nature and leaching into food and the human body began fresh negotiations on Monday toward a UN treaty to tackle the growing problem. Some 175 countries agreed last year to conclude by 2024 a binding agreement to combat the plastic pollution littering oceans, mountain tops, and even blood and breast milk. Negotiators have met twice already but the weeklong talks in Kenya are the first to consider the concrete details of the treaty, and tensions have emerged over what it should contain.

Nine-month results

Nine-month consolidated net profit attributable to parent shareholders was US$ 2.23m, compared US$ 1.80m for the same period last year, an increase of 24%. Earnings Per Share of the parent company was US cents 0.75 as compared to US cents 0.61 in 2022. This increase is primarily attributed to a reversal of a previously taken provision. In Addition to the increase in other income, INOVEST maintained specific control over expenses across its business.

Consolidated net operating income increased by 184%, reaching a profit of US$ 1.35m in comparison to a US$ 475 thousand for the same period of 2022. Consolidated operating income rose 5% to US$ 7.42m from US$ 7.10m last year.

Emirates, flydubai among Boeing's big customers at Dubai Airshow

Dubai, United Arab Emirates

Emirates announced a bump-er order of 95 planes and flydubai snapped up 30 wide-bodied aircraft as US manufacturer Boeing did brisk business on day one of the Dubai Airshow on Monday.

Dubai-based Emirates, the Middle East's biggest airline, made the largest purchase with its $52 billion order for 55 Boeing 777-9s, 35 777-8s and five 787 Dreamliners.

"This order represents a significant investment that demonstrates Dubai's commitment to the future of aviation," Emirates' chief executive Sheikh Ahmed bin Saeed Al Maktoum told a press conference.

The 777-9s are expected for delivery in 2025 and the 777-8s are scheduled for 2030.

Separately, budget carrier flydubai, owned by the Dubai government, ordered 30 Boeing 787-9s valued at 231 billion dirhams ($63 billion) -- its first wide-bodied, or large-capacity, planes as it looks to expand to new routes.

The biennial show, featuring commercial as well as military planes and weaponry, is taking place against the backdrop of severe regional tensions due to the ongoing Israel-Hamas war, sparked by the October 7 attack by Hamas militants.

An exhibit by Israel Aerospace Industries was roped off and vacant on day one, and there was no response to requests to the company for information.

A section designated for SIBAT, an arm of the Israeli defence ministry, was being used as a coffee shop. The company also did not respond to an inquiry from AFP.

But the main focus at the show was the aircraft purchases -- mainly booked by Boeing -- that underlined the industry's post-pandemic recovery and bullishness about the future.

News in brief

♦ The US Army yesterday announced it is setting aside the "unfair" convictions of 110 Black soldiers who were court martialed over 1917 unrest in Houston, Texas. The soldiers -- who were guarding the site where a military camp was being constructed -- took up arms following months of racial abuse, discrimination and assaults and marched into the city, where 19 people were killed in clashes. The military subsequently convicted 110 of the soldiers over the violence and put 19 of them to death in what the Army said was its largest mass execution of American troops.

"After a thorough review, the board has found that these soldiers were wrongly treated because of their race and were not given fair trials," US Secretary of the Army Christine Wormuth said in a statement, referring to the Army Board for Correction of Military Records. "By setting aside their convictions and granting honorable discharges, the Army is acknowledging past mistakes and setting the record straight," she said.

Hilary Duff 'loves' her X-rated birthday card

Celebretainment | Los

Hilary Duff has received an X-rated birthday card from her five-year-old daughter.

The 36-year-old actress has revealed that her daughter Banks - who can't read yet - bought her an inappropriate card in September that read: "Happy birthday, dd!".

Hilary - who has Mae, two, and Banks, five, with Matthew Koma, as well as Luca, 11, with Mike Comrie - said on 'Late Night With Seth Meyers': "My husband was so excited. He took her to ... CVS, I don't know where they bought the card ... and he was like, 'Banks got you the best birthday card'. And I was like, 'Oh, my God!'

"Thank God it didn't have confetti, that's my worst nightmare. When you open it and there's glitter everywhere ... [but] I thought it was going to sing to me or something and I was really surprised. Love it!"

Injured Locatelli out of Italy's Euro qualifying deciders

Luciano Spalletti AFP | Milan

Manuel Locatelli is injured and out of Italy's final Euro 2024 qualifiers against North Macedonia and Ukraine, coach Luciano Spalletti said yesterday.

Spalletti told reporters that "Locatelli has left" without specifying what injury had led to the Juventus midfielder being forced to depart the Azzurri training camp.

Locatelli joins AC Milan captain Davide Calabria, Napoli goalkeeper Alex Meret and Atalanta defender Rafael Toloi on the treatment table, leaving Spalletti with 25 of the 29 players he initially called up for the Group C deciders.

Italy are third, three points behind Ukraine who occupy the second automatic qualifying spot in Group C but have played a game more than the European champions.

Novak Djokovic will finish the year as world number one for a record-extending eighth time after beating Holger Rune 7-6 (7/4), 6-7 (1/7), 6-3 in his opening match at the ATP Finals on Sunday.

The 24-time Grand Slam champion needed just one win or a defeat for young rival Carlos Alcaraz in order to secure top spot in the ATP rankings for 2023 and prevailed in a three-hour Green Group clash with spirited debutant Rune.

Djokovic, on a run of 19 straight wins, has had an age-defying year, winning three Slams winner of major titles.

Rune kept plugging away, however, and after the pair slugged each other with bigger and bigger hits Djokovic slipped in the tie-break, missing a simple volley to draw level on the second point and then collapsing to concede the set.

But after briefly losing it for allowing Rune to break back in game three of the third set, kicking his rackets in a rage, Djokovic composed himself and saw out a historic win.

"I found a way to win today against an opponent who played brilliantly... he had a lot of courage today," added Djokovic in
