Bahrain to take part in Space Camp 2025 in Alabama

Dubai

The National Space Science Authority (NSSA), represented by its CEO, Dr. Mohammed Ibrahim Al Aseeri, signed an agreement with Kallman Worldwide, represented by its President and CEO, Thomas Kallman, in the Partnership USA Pavilion in Dubai Airshow 2023.

Kallman has selected Bahrain for the third time in a row to be one of the participating countries in the Space Camp 2025, in Alabama, US, due to NSSA's excellence and the Kingdom's position in education regionally and based on the success of previous experiences.

Dr. Al Aseeri expressed his happiness to sign this agreement, which aims to highlight Bahrain among the advanced countries in space sciences and the use of space technologies to enhance comprehensive development and ensure prosperity in the Kingdom.

Cooperation

He stressed that establishing cooperative relationships in regional and international joint projects with space agencies and technical, industrial, and research organisations working in space science, technology education, science, engineering, and mathematics, is an integral part of the NS-SA's strategic plan.

He said that this agreement enhances cooperation in the future, adding that the NSSA is keen to develop education and training in the space sector and its sciences.

Rita Ora: I've learned to live in the present

Celebretainment | Los Angeles

Rita Ora is determined to live in the present.

The 32-year-old pop star has revealed that she's trying to follow the advice of her therapist by living in the present, your body through something and not worrying about her twice, you should really try future.

Asked what advice she'd give to someone who is uncertain about their future, Rita - who is married to filmmaker Taika Waititi told Blag Magazine: "What's the point? Because you would never know anyway what your future holds. So what's the point of being uncertain? "I know this thing that my therapist tells me all the time. It's like, why put your body through something twice? You know when you have stress about the future or the past. It's like your body doesn't really know the dif-

"So if you can avoid putting and do that. So that's what I've been working on.

"So it'd be probably like, what's the point? Just try and do what you can in that moment you're in, rather than worrying about what's going to happen in the future. Therapist's words, not mine!" Rita recently spent some time with the adventurer and TV star Bear Grylls, and she admits

Paris Hilton: I feel like the luckiest girl in the world

Celebretainment

Reum

Paris Hilton feels like "the luckiest girl in the world" to be married to Carter

The 42-yearold star has taken to social media to give fans a behind-the-scenes look at their wedding anniversary celebrations, posting a photo of a huge bouquet of flowers that she sent to her husband.

Alongside the image, Paris - who tied the knot in 2021 wrote on her Instagram Story: "Special anniversary sur> prise to my love." The roses featured different shades of pink and were arranged in a heart shape.

The blonde beauty - who has Phoenix, nine months, with Carter - said: "Happy anniversary baby, I love you. So beautiful."

Paris also posted another heartfelt tribute to her husband on Instagram. Paris Hilton

World Cup debacle sees Azam quit in major Pakistan shake-up

AFP | Lahore

Pakistan cricket underwent a major shake-up yesterday in the aftermath of the team's World Cup flop as Babar Azam quit as skipper with Shan Masood becoming Test captain, Shaheen Shah Afridi taking the reins of the whiteball side while coaches were downgraded.

Pakistan Cricket Board (PCB) officials said they had sacked Azam as limited-overs skipper but still wanted him to remain in charge of the Test team.

"Today, I am stepping down as the captain of Pakistan in all formats," Azam announced on X, formerly Twitter, after meeting PCB chief Zakar Ashraf in Lahore.

"It's a difficult decision but I feel it is the right time for this call. I will continue to represent Pakistan as a player in all three formats."

Azam, 29, had been leading the side since November 2019 here to support the new but after the failure to reach the World Cup semi-finals in India his position was immediately under threat.

"I am here to support the new captain and the team with my experience and dedication," added Azam.

Alcaraz beats troubled Rublev to keep ATP Finals hopes alive

AFP | Turin

arlos Alcaraz kept alive his hopes of reaching the last four of the ATP Finals with yesterday's 7-5, 6-2 win over an emotionally fraught Andrey Rublev.

World number two Alcaraz has struggled with form and fitness over the past few months and was staring at possible early elimination after losing his first Red Group match with Alexander Zverev.

But he looked in much better condition yesterday and comfortably claimed his first Carlos Alcaraz celebrates his win ever win in the season-ending tournament, snapping a threematch losing streak.

"I'm really happy to get my first win at the Masters here in with Daniil Medvedev and lost Torino, I played at such a great control again after giving away level I'm really happy about it," said Alcaraz on court.

"The first match was a tough match for me and it was a down was too much for the tough moment after it but I'm 26-year-old who started really happy with the way I came back.
