Two Asian men face sentencing in drugs case

For possession, use of illegal substances

TDT | Manama

The High Criminal Court has adjourned the case of two Asian men accused of possession and use of drugs and psychotropic substances until July 29th for sentencing.

The defendants, a 38-year-old supervisor and a 30-year-old worker, remain in custody.

The case stems from information received from confidential sources alleging that the defendants were involved in the possession and sale of heroin with intent to traffic.

Following extensive investigations, authorities obtained a warrant from the Public Prosecution to arrest the suspects and search their residences.

The Public Prosecution charged the first defendant with possessing heroin with intent to traffic in 2024, providing heroin to the second defendant for consumption without legal authorisation, and possessing and storing heroin, morphine, and psychotropic substances (methamphetamine and diazepam) without legal authorisation.

The second defendant was charged with possessing and storing heroin, morphine, and the psychotropic substance (methamphetamine) with intent to consume without legal authorisation.

Tamas led other Palestinian Harmed groups in committing hundreds of war crimes in the surprise October 7 attack on Israel that set off the Gaza war, Human Rights Watch said in a report released yesterday.

Hamas reacted with fury to one of the most in-depth international studies on the unprecedented incursion into southern Israel, demanding that HRW withdraw the report and "apologise".

The report set out a host of crimes under international law that it says Hamas and its allies breached

"It's impossible for us to put a number on the specific instances," HRW associate director Belkis Wille told a news conference, adding that "there were obviously hundreds on that day".

The crimes include "deliberate and indiscriminate attacks against civilians and civilian objects; wilful killing of persons in custody; cruel and other inhumane treatment; sexual and gender-based violence; hostage taking; mutilation and despoiling (robbing) of bodies; use of human shields; and pillage and

Stellantis, BMW recall 725,000 US autos over airbag issues

New York, United States

Automakers Stellan-tis and BMW recalled around 725,000 autos for problems related to airbags, according to documents released Wednesday by federal safety officials.

At Stellantis, the issue is that a "seat belt buckle switch sensor may be improperly connected, preventing the front seat air bag from deploying as intended," the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration said in a written notice to US Stellantis unit

"A front seat air bag that does not deploy as intended can increase the risk of injury in a crash," the notice added.

The affected pool of around 330,000 autos includes certain models of Alfa Romeo, Jeep and Fiat between 2017 and 2024.

FCA discovered the issue during a "routine review" of customer feedback. The company said it knows of no injuries or accidents.

Ferrari extend F1-engine contract with Haas

AFP | Paris, France

Ferrari have provided power units since Haas made their Grand Prix debut in 2016.

"I'm thrilled to extend our relationship with Scuderia Ferrari until 2028," Avao Komatsu, the Team Principal said.

"As an organisation we've only ever raced with Ferrari power units and to have that continued stability moving into the next set of power unit regulations is a key part of our on-going development."

Formula One is introducing power unit new rules in 2026 emphasising hybrid components and running fully on sustainable fuels.

Haas are seventh, out of the 10 teams, in the constructors' championship. with 27 points ahead of the 13th round of the season in Hungary this weekend.

In addition to Haas, Ferrari also provide engines for Sauber, but that will become an Audi works team in 2026.

Former Rolls-Royce Design Chief Ian Cameron Tragically Killed in Bavaria

Ian Cameron TDT | agencies

Former Rolls-Royce design chief Ian Cameron, known for his pivotal role in the automaker's design renaissance with the Phantom and Ghost ranges, was tragically stabbed to death at his home in Bavaria on July 12.

German newspaper reports have identified a suspect via surveillance camera footage, who police believe is the killer.

The suspect was seen shopping at a store less than a mile from Cameron's house before changing clothes and appearing at Cameron's door. Surveillance images captured him wearing light pants, a dark blue hoodie, a red backpack, and "yellow-green gloves," matching descriptions from neighbors.

Reports indicate that someone had cut the wires on the home security system, suggesting the suspect or an accomplice had been casing the house for several days. The killer rang the doorbell and attacked Cameron as soon as he opened the front door, stabbing the designer to death. Cameron's wife, Verena Kloos, managed to escape to a neighbor's house and called the police.

The tragic loss of Ian Cameron has shocked the automotive design community, where his contributions have left a lasting legacy.

FIFA says opening probe into Argentina players' racist chants

AFP | Paris, France

IFA said yesterday it was opening an investigation into racist chants by Argentina players after they won the Copa America

"FIFA is aware of a video circulating on social media and the incident is being looked into," a spokesperson for world football's governing body said.

They added: "FIFA strongly condemns any form of discrimination by anyone including players, fans and officials."

1.2 million tickets left for Paris Olympics

Paris, France

rganisers of the Paris Olympics said Wednesday that there were still 1.2 million tickets left for the Games, mostly for football, basketball and handball.

Team sports such as football have struggled to sell out the large venues chosen for the matches, while organisers are also set to release new more sought-after places for the finals of the swimming and athletics from Thursday.

"More than 50,000 tickets will be put on sale in more than 30 sports (on Thursday)," deputy director general Mickael Aloisio told reporters. The Paris Games have set a new record for the total number of tickets sold, with the 8.7 million purchased surpassing the previous high of 8.3 million at the Atlanta Games in 1996."More than 60 percent" of tickets have been sold in France, Aloisio said.

Organisers faced severe criticism from fans and even some athletes over the cost of tickets when they were first released last year, which undermined the promise of a "people's Olympics".

Tour de France was originally conceived as a marketing ploy to boost the sales of the newspaper "L'Auto" in 1903. The race was the brainchild of Henri Desgrange, the editor of L'Auto, and his colleague, Georges LefŁvre, a cycling journalist. The first Tour de France covered approximately 2,428 kilometers (1,509 miles) and was won by Maurice Garin. This successful event not only significantly increased the newspaper's circulation but also established the Tour de France as the premier event in the world of

Mohamed Alsameea to represent Bahrain at BRAVE CF China event

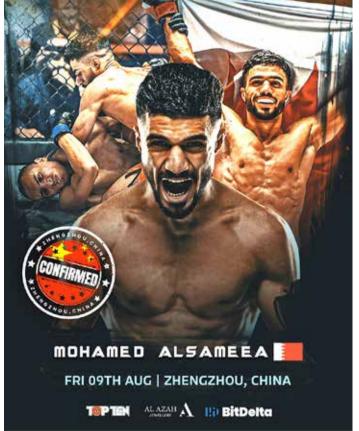

Alsameea will take on China's Yang Weigiang in a Flyweight bout at the event

TDT | Manama

Bahraini MMA Fighter Mo-hamed Alsameea is all set to be in action at the BRAVE CF 84 event which is scheduled to happen in China on August 9.

A three-time IMMAF Medallist and a former Asian amateur MMA champion, Alsameea will take on China's Yang Weiqiang in a Flyweight bout at the event. This will be the third professional MMA fight for Alsameea who is currently undefeated in the professional MMA circuit with a record of two wins and no losses.

A member of the KHK MMA team formed under the vision of His Highness Shaikh Khaled bin Hamad Al Khalifa, Alsameea had a notable amateur career representing Bahwith another dominant finish at BRAVE CF 80 against Yehia Ashraf. He is held in the highest regards by everyone in the Arab MMA community as the next big future superstar out of the Kingdom of Bahrain. He is a pupil of Hamza Kooheji, the best Bantamweight in the Middle East and a legend of Bahrain sports. Yang Weiqiang, on the other hand, holds a professional MMA record of four wins and four losses and will be making his promotional debut in the fight at BRAVE CF 84.

BRAVE CF 84 will be the fourth event of 2024 for BRAVE Combat Federation following memorable outings in Slovenia, Mauritius, and the Netherlands. This will also be the debut event in China for the most global MMA organization in the world and will take the number of host nations to 33 which is a record unmatched by any other MMA promotion in the world.

The event also kickstarts a busy 70-day period for BRAVE Combat Federation as the organization will be travelling 17,000 kilometres around the world hosting six events.

Modric extends Real Madrid deal for another season

Madrid, Spain

Real Madrid captain Luka Italy at Euro 2024, although he could not prevent the 2018 one-year deal to keep him at World Cup runners-up from the Santiago Bernabeu for the upcoming season, the European champions announced on Wednesday.

The 38-year-old midfielder extended his contract until June 30, 2025.

Modric has won six Champions League titles, La Liga four times and lifted the Copa del Rey twice with Real Madrid.

He has only started 37 times across the last two league seasons, but remains a key player for coach Carlo Ancelotti, having helped Los Blancos to a Champions League-La Liga double last term.

Modric became the oldest goalscorer in European Championship history last month when he netted for Croatia against suffering a group-stage

"I'd like to keep playing forever but there will probably be a time

I'll have to hang up my boots,' Modric said after the agonising 1-1 draw with Italy which put Croatia out.

"I'll keep playing on, I don't know for how much longer."

The news of Modric's extension comes the day after new star signing Kylian Mbappe was presented to Madrid fans following his move from Paris Saint-Germain.

Madrid will kick off their league title defence at Real Mallorca on Sunday, August 18.
