Debate over pay rises for public workers past retirement age

TDT | Manama

Parliament will debate a proposal on Tuesday to adjust job ranks for public sector workers following the extension of the retirement age, ensuring that annual pay rises continue as employees work longer.

The suggested changes could affect thousands of workers across government ministries, with proponents arguing the adjustments will prevent financial stagnation and boost morale.

MP Mohsen Al Asbool. Chair of the Legislative and Legal Affairs Committee, said the proposal had been thoroughly examined and received unanimous support from committee members.

He described it as an essential step to match salary structures with longer working years while motivating employees to achieve more.

The proposal, put forward by MP Hassan Ebrahim, recommends revising salary scales to ensure uninterrupted annual pay rises, even as the retirement age increases.

Repeat offender three-year jail term upheld

TDT | Manama

The High Criminal Appeals Court has upheld a three-year prison sentence for a repeat offender who has a history of deliberately targeting food delivery drivers with his vehicle. The defendant's appeal was dismissed due to his failure to appear in court.

The case centres around an incident in Saar where the defendant, known for his history of similar offenses, deliberately rammed his vehicle into a food delivery driver's motorbike.

This resulted in a 1% permanent injury to the driver and damage to the motorbike. The court found that while the defendant did not intend to cause such a severe injury, the act of deliberately striking the motorbike was intentional.

A minor traffic dispute escalated when the defendant deliberately collided with his motorbike.

Lebanon president says Israel must withdraw from south by January 26 deadline

Lebanon's President Joseph Aoun AFP | Beirut, Lebanon

ebanon's new president said yesterday Lathat Israel must withdraw from his country's south by the January 26 deadline set to fully implement an Israel-Hezbollah ceasefire agreed last year.

His remarks follow a speech by Hezbollah eader Naim Qassem who accused Israel of hundreds of ceasefire violations, warning it against testing "our patience" and calling on the Lebanese state to be "firm" in its response.

President Joseph Aoun told visiting United Nations chief Antonio Guterres that it was necessary for "Israeli forces to withdraw from occupied territories in the south within the deadline set by the agreement reached on November 27"

"Israel's continued violations on land and in the air... blowing up homes and destroying border villages, completely contradicts what was stated in the ceasefire agreement," a statement from Aoun's office added.

Under the November 27 ceasefire deal, which ended two months of all-out war between Israel and Hezbollah, the Lebanese army has 60 days to deploy alongside peacekeepers from the UNIFIL mission in south Lebanon as the Israeli army withdraws.

At the same time, Hezbollah is required to pull its forces north of the Litani River, around 30 kilometres (20 miles) from the border, and dismantle any remaining military infrastructure it has in the south.

TikTok could 'go dark' in US Sunday after Supreme Court ruling

AFP | Washington, United States

TikTok says it will "go dark" in the United ■ States today unless the government provides assurances a new law calling for its ban won't be used to punish service providers.

"Unless the Biden Administration immediately provides a definitive statement to satisfy the most critical service providers assuring non-enforcement, unfortunately TikTok will be forced to go dark on January 19," TikTok said in a statement.

The US Supreme Court on Friday upheld a law supported by President Joe Biden and Congress that requires the app's owner ByteDance to either sell TikTok or cease US operations by January 19.

"The statements issued today by both the Biden White House and the Department of Justice have failed to provide the necessary clarity and assurance to the service providers that are integral to maintaining TikTok's availability to over 170 million Americans," TikTok said following the Supreme Court decision.

The unanimous ruling, which found the law does not violate free speech rights, dealt a major blow to TikTok and created uncertainty about what will happen when the ban takes effect.

The court agreed with the government's national security concerns about Chinese company ByteDance's ownership of the app.

ByteDance has firmly rejected selling its US operation, a stance also taken by Beijing, which has denounced the law as theft.

> Regardless of who takes credit, let us not ignore the fact that the ceasefire comes at a time when most of the world finds it increasingly difficult to countenance the terrible genocide by Israel of Palestinians, in the name of selfmitment to the region. This is not the first time that two U.S. Presidents have fought like schoolboys to score brownie points over a MidEast crisis. Remember how Jimmy Carter, then an outgoing President, and incoming Ronald Reagan both took (shared?) credit for securing the release of American diplomats from Khomeini's Iran?

Regardless of who takes credit, let us not ignore the fact that the ceasefire comes at a time when most of the world finds it increasingly difficult to countenance the terrible genocide by Israel of Palestinians, in the name of self-defense. The Gaza Strip, one of the most crowded and highly urbanized spaces in the Middle East, has practically been reduced to rubble by Israeli bombing and over 46,000 killed, most of them civilians, women and a shocking 18,000 children. Who will come forward to help rebuild Gaza so that Palestinians have a habitable space to call their own, raise future generations and thrive? Rumours are that even now, Israel is encroaching on Gaza land and encouraging Jewish settlers to put down roots there.

And its not all good news for the vulnerable in America either. After all, Trump has made it no secret that his first priority as President would not be Israel-Gaza but the start of the promised mass deportation of immigrants and re-focusing on Iran. In this maze of promises and retribution, it is always the innocent who suffer the most.
