ICC issues arrest warrants for Netanyahu

AFP | The Hague

The International Criminal Court yesterday issued arrest warrants for Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu and his former defence minister, as well as Hamas's military chief Mohammed Deif.

Israel's closest allies, including the US, slammed the warrants against the Israeli politicians, but rights groups including Amnesty International welcomed them.

The ICC's move theoretically limits the movement of Netanyahu, as any of the court's 124 national members would be obliged to arrest him on their territory. (Detailed reports on World Page)

 China blamed Washington's support for Taiwan for the failure of the two countries' defence ministers to meet this week, after US Defence Secretary Lloyd Austin called Beijing's no-show "unfortunate". Multiple US media reported this week that Austin had hoped to meet his Chinese counterpart Dong Jun at a regional summit in Laos as part of efforts to maintain military contact between the two superpowers. Austin reportedly said chiefs to meet China had declined the meeting, calling the decision "a setback for the whole region". Beijing hit back Thursday, saying "the responsibility for not holding a meeting... lies solely with the US side." "The US can't damage China's core interests on the Taiwan question while at the same time conducting exchanges with the Chinese military as if nothing had happened," defence ministry spokesperson Wu Qian said in an online statement.
