Trump's warning in a Truth Social post came as the Republican seeks a quick solution to a grinding conflict that he had promised to end before even starting his second term.

"If we don't make a 'deal,' and soon, I have no other choice but to put high levels of Taxes, Tariffs, and Sanctions on anything being sold by Russia to the United States, and various other participating countries," Trump said.

Trump said he was "not looking to hurt Russia" and had "always had a very good relationship with President Putin," a leader for whom he has expressed admiration in the past.

7aser Khamis, a certified mediator from the Ministry of Justice, Islamic Affairs and Endowments, has shed light on the significant challenges faced by divorced women with custody of their children who are considering remarriage.

Based on his experience and a survey he conducted, Khamis identifies several key factors contributing to their reluctance.

Failure

Khamis stressed that the most prevalent reason for divorced mothers to avoid remarriage is the fear of repeating a failed marriage.

Business owner imprisoned for BD34,685 fake contract scam

TDT | Manama

 $T_{\rm forged\ documents,\ and}^{\rm hirty\ fake\ contracts,}$ a fraud worth BD34,685 have landed an establishment owner in hot water.

The First Lower Criminal Court has handed him a three-year prison sentence and ordered his deportation, while two accomplices will serve two years each and pay fines of BD5,000.

The Public Prosecution announced yesterday.

The scam came to light after the Labour Fund, Tamkeen, raised the alarm with the Anti-Corruption Crimes Directorate.

The establishment. which dealt in advertising and publicity, had submitted fabricated employment contracts for 30 workers.

Data

Investigations by Tamkeen's Violations Committee revealed that these contracts were fake, and the data supporting them was false.

The owner had also filed forged documents suggesting he had paid wages to these workers - an elaborate scheme designed to siphon funds from Tamkeen.

The fraud netted him over BD34,000 in financial support he had no right to claim.

Tamkeen's inspections and field visits confirmed the scam, leading to a deeper probe.

The Public Prosecution examined the dodgy documents, interviewed witnesses from Tamkeen, and grilled those involved.

Their findings revealed that the owner had worked closely with two accomplices who provided him with the fake contracts, which he

Drugs found in clay-filled e-games TDT | Manama

A cache of 439 narcotic pills, hidden in clayfilled electronic games, has led to the arrest of a 24-year-old Asian man.

The drugs were discovered after a Bahraini couple mistakenly received the suspicious parcel, which was supposed to contain cosmetics ordered online.

The wife of the reporting man had purchased cosmetics from an overseas website. When the parcel arrived, the couple noticed its large size and unexpected weight. Upon opening it, they found electronic games instead of cosmetics.

Examining one of the games, they saw it had four screw holes, with one screw missing. After dismantling the game, they uncovered a clay-wrapped package concealing the pills.

The Anti-Narcotics Directorate took charge, finding nine small nylon bags inside the games, packed with the suspected narcotics.

Investigators determined the parcel had been addressed to someone else.

Further inquiries revealed the suspect had ordered the shipment and was reportedly using concealed methods to smuggle drugs into Bahrain.

Traders have been bracing for Trump 2.0 since his re-election in November, with an initial rally -- fuelled by hopes of market-boosting measures -- giving way to worries he would resume his trade war with China and also target others.

There had been optimism that Beijing would avoid being targeted in an early flurry of duties by the White House after Trump said Monday he would first hit Canada and Mexico. But he broadened his targets Tuesday to include China and the European Union. There is also a concern that Trump's plans to slash taxes, immigration and regulations will reignite inflation and crimp the Federal Reserve's ability to cut interest rates. immediately clear whether the fire alarm was false. A spokesperson for Indian Railways was quoted by local media as having said that someone had pulled the "alarm chain" on a Mumbai-bound train, following which "a few passengers got down from the train". "At that moment, they were run over by another train going in the opposite direction," the spokesperson said. India's interior minister Amit Shah expressed his "deepest condolences to the families of those who lost their lives in this accident"

Murdoch's News Group Newspapers (NGN) issued a wide-ranging apology and admission of wrongdoing, in what Harry's lawyer David Sherborne called "a monumental victory" that underlined the need for further probes. The publisher apologised to him for the impact of the "serious intrusion" into the private life of his late mother Diana, Princess of Wales, particularly when he was younger. The settlement won by King Charles's

The executive order directed is attorney general to delay the implementation of the law for 75 days.

Musk slams Trumpbacked AI mega project Washington, United States

🔽 lon Musk yesterday cast L doubt on a $500 billion AI project announced by US President Donald Trump, saying the money promised for the investment actually wasn't there.

The comments were a rare instance of a split between the world's richest man and Trump, with Musk playing a key role in the newly installed administration after spending $270 million on the election campaign.

In his first full day in the White House, Trump on Tuesday announced a major investment to build infrastructure for artificial intelligence led by Japanese giant SoftBank and ChatGPT-maker OpenAI.

Trump said the venture, called Stargate, "will invest $500 billion, at least, in AI infrastructure in the United States.'

But in a post on his social media platform X, Musk said the main investors "don't actually have the money."

"SoftBank has well under $10B secured. I have that on good authority," Musk added in a subsequent post.

Musk's sideswipe could be particularly targeted at OpenAI, the world's leading AI startup that Musk helped found, before leaving in 2018.

he annual Green Brown Challenge between Awali Golf Club and the Royal Golf Club concluded with Awali retaining the trophy after an impressive 8-2 victory.

Played in a pairs better-ball matchplay format, the event saw 20 players from each club compete across the distinctive surfaces of Bahrain's golf courses.

The competition began on the browns at Awali Golf Club and continued on the grass greens of the Royal Golf Club, which are primed for the upcoming DP World Tour event starting January 30. The format allowed for a total of 10 matches, with each match contributing one point or half a point in case of a draw.

Awali, the defending champions from 2024, needed just for this eagerly awaited chalfive points to retain the trophy. From the outset, they dominated the contest, securing an emphatic win for their second con-
