His Royal Highness highlighted the importance of Jewellery Arabia and its 30-year history in the Kingdom – a notable fixture in Bahrain's annual calendar of events.

He expressed his appreciation for the significant contribution of the late HRH Prince Khalifa bin Salman Al Khalifa, who supported the founding of Jewellery Arabia.

His Royal Highness also extended his gratitude to the organisers of Jewellery Arabia 2022, wishing them every success in this year's exhibitions.

HRH Prince Salman affirmed that the opening of Exhibition World Bahrain, with its state-of-the-art international exhibitions and events facilities, marks a new era for MICE tourism in Bahrain.

Tourism contribution

Tourism Minister Fatima bint Jafar Al Sairafi affirmed that Bahrain, thanks to His Majesty

King Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifa's royal directives and the continuous support of His Royal Highness, is increasing the tourism contribution to GDP.

Jewellery Arabia, and Exhibition World Bahrain, are evidence of a developing and competitive tourism sector in the Kingdom, she added.

A number of senior officials also attended the event's opening.

The five-day Jewellery Arabia is the Middle East's premier jewellery and watch event. Backed by a 30-year track record of success, the show unites the world's most desirable brands and extraordinary designers with discerning buyers.
