Saudi Crown Prince Mo-hammed bin Salman promised yesterday to pile $600 billion into US trade and investments as he congratulated Donald Trump on his return to the White House.

Prince Mohammed made the pledge in a phone call following Trump's inauguration on Monday, Saudi state media said.

Trump forged close relations with Riyadh in his first term and is now expected to push Saudi Arabia, home of Islam's holiest sites, towards normalising ties with Israel as a major foreign policy objective.

Shura Council set to debate law on residential construction noise restrictions proposed law to curb the racket of drilling and demolition in residential neighbourhoods is set to be debated in the Shura Council on Sunday.

Mohammed Darwish TDT | Manama

The plan aims to empower municipalities to impose restrictions on noisy construction work during rest hours, addressing long-standing grievances from residents over sleep-shattering disturbances.

At present, no rules exist to prevent contractors from opholidays, or late at night, leaving families to cope with sleepless nights and the constant stress of nearby construction activity.

Amendment

Shura's Public Utilities and Environment Committee, seeks to amend Article 20 of the 1977 Building Regulation Law.

Man cleared of embezzlement accusation TDT | Manama

Doubts over mismatched car details and ownership records have cleared a 29-year-old man accused of embezzling a rental vehicle and owing BD1,530 in arrears.

The court's decision followed a compelling defence by lawyer Hanan bin Hammouda, who dismantled the prosecution's claims by presenting evidence that contradicted the allegations.

The charges alleged that between 2023 and 2024, in the Southern Governorate, the man rented a car from a company but failed to return it or pay the daily fee of BD8, resulting in overdue charges of BD1,530.

However, Bin Hammouda argued that her client had returned the car and provided a criminal report to back up her claim.

An employee of the rental company filed a complaint, claiming the defendant had not returned the car.

Jimmy Walker: A champion's journey to Bahrain

Hussain Almaskati TDT | Manama

immy Walker, a six-time PGA Tour winner and the 2016 PGA Championship victor, is no stranger to overcoming adversity. Reflecting on the toll of Lyme disease, which he contracted in 2016, Walker shared the mental and physical battles he faced: "It hit me physically pretty hard, and I know it affected my head a little bit. People say it's just me getting old, but I don't feel old-I've had to learn to deal with it and keep plugging along."

Walker emphasized his commitment to health and consistency, highlighting how dedication to exercise and nutrition has helped him rebuild his game after years of struggle.

Rekindling His Game

Following a summer of rededication, Walker's return to form began in Europe, with standout performances at the Irish Open and in Madrid. Despite

BRAVE CF's 2024 success sets stage for Asian domination in 2025

TDT | Manama

RAVE Combat Federation has positioned itself as Da global powerhouse in MMA. Its remarkable growth in 2024 has created a solid foundation for expansion into key Asian nations. With a strong presence in Europe, Brazil, and the Middle East, BRAVE CF has already expanded into larger markets in Asia, including India, Japan, the Philippines, Indonesia, and Pakistan.

BRAVE CF's ability to showcase diverse talent has been a driving force. The organization hosts fighters from over 80 countries, offering a global platform for emerging stars. This inclusivity appeals to Asian nations with vibrant MMA scenes. Fighters from these regions now see BRAVE CF as the ultimate stage to showcase their skills. Besides, the organization has successfully activated branding and sponsorship across the geographies giving crucial grassroot-level support for the sports ecosystem.

adison Keys fought back from a set down yesterday to shock Iga Swiatek in a nail-biter and set up an Australian Open final against two-time defending champion Aryna Sabalenka.

The 19th seed battled through a thrilling semi-final on a final-set tiebreak against the world number two 5-7, 6-1, 7-6 (10/8) after Sabalenka swept aside Paula Badosa in straight sets.

Five-time Grand Slam champion Swiatek had not dropped her serve since the first round but was broken eight times by Kevs, who saved a match point on her way to edging a titanic battle.

It will be the American's first final in Melbourne, and only her second in Slams, and she broke down in tears after finally getting over the line in 2hr 35min.

It was the first time an Australian Open semi-final had been tiebreak. "That match was just such a high level and she played so well," Keys, 29, said.

"I felt like I was just and be in the finals is absolutely amazing and I'm so excited that I get to be here on Saturday."

Keys confessed she couldn't recall much detail about the final set where she saved a match point.

"In the third set, it was just so up and down. I feel like I blacked out at some point," Keys smiled.

"Just to be able to stay in it and just keep fighting and then a 10-point tiebreaker for a dramatic finish." Earlier, Sabalenka put her close friendship with Badosa aside to stay on track for a 26-year first.

"I hope she's still my friend. I'm sure she'll hate me for the mate" and next hour, day or two, but I'm okay with that, I can handle 'super that," she added.

Despite losing, Badosa's run to the last four capped a remarkable comeback for the Spaniard after a brutal back injury in 2023 had her considering quitting tennis.

Instead, her Melbourne exploits will return her to the top 10 for the first time since October 2022.
