Paris holds breath for today's Olympics opening ceremony

AFP | Paris

Paris was yesterday counting down the hours to the most ambitious Olympics opening ceremony in history on the river Seine.

The show tonight will see up to 7,500 competitors sail down a six-kilometre stretch of the Seine on 85 boats, accompanied by a performance blending French culture and Olympic values that organisers promise will be spectacular.

The Paris Olympics, officially known as the Games of the XXXIII Olympiad, are scheduled to take place from July 26 to August 11, 2024.

Netanyahu, Biden discuss approach to ending nine-month Gaza fighting

AFP | Washington

sraeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said vesterday he was ready to work with Joe Biden for the rest of his presidency, as the two leaders met for the first time at the White House for talks on a Gaza ceasefire.

"I want to thank you for the 50 years of public service and 50 years of support for the state of Israel," Netanyahu said after they shook hands in the historic setting of the Oval Office.

"And I look forward to discussing with you today and working with you in the months ahead."

Biden stunned the world Sunday when he announced that he was bowing out of the US presidential election, with Vice President Kamala Harris now set to be the Democratic Party's candidate.

Netanyahu will also meet Harris separately at the White House, in a reflection of the new political reality that will see Biden as a lame duck president for his remaining six months in office.

The Harris meeting comes amid speculation that if she wins tougher approach on Israel's war in Gaza.

Negotiations

A senior US administration official said Wednesday that negotiations on a Gaza deal were in the "closing stages" and that Biden would try to close some 'final gaps" with Netanyahu.

Harris has previously been more outspoken about Israel's conduct of the war, prompting speculation she will shift her policy as presidential nominee.

The US official said there was "no daylight between the president and vice president", who will meet Netanyahu at 4:30 pm (2030 GMT).

US rejects plan for G20 deal to tax super-rich

The United States sees no need to negotiate an international agreement on taxing the super-wealthy, US Treasury Secretary Janet Yellen said yesterday, highlighting divisions on a plan that is top of the agenda at a G20 finance ministers' meeting in Rio de Janeiro.

Taxing the ultra-rich is a key priority of Brazil's leftist president, Luiz Inacio Lula da Silva, who this year heads the G20 grouping of the world's major economies, the European Union and African Union.

"Tax policy is very difficult to coordinate globally," Yellen told a press conference in Rio de Janeiro, ahead of an evening meeting between finance ministers to discuss the topic.

"We don't see a need or really think it's desirable to try to negotiate a global agreement Image used for illustrative purposes only

Yellen said Washington was "strongly supportive of progressive taxation, and making sure that very wealthy, high-income individuals pay their fair share."

She highlighted policies proposed by US President Joe Biden, such as a billionaires' tax, which she described as "a very worthwhile initiative."

Progressive taxation

"It makes sense for most countries to take this approach of progressive taxation."

Brazil's search for a global agreement on taxing the richest of the rich is backed by France, Spain, South Africa, Colombia and the African Union.

"Some individuals control more resources than entire countries," Lula said Wednesday at the launch of an initiatries should make sure that their tive to fight world hunger, antaxation systems are fair and other project topping his G20 agenda.

Work has kicked off on the road linking Hunainyah Avenue and Al Muaskar Highway in the Southern Governorate, according to Engineer Ahmed AlTajir, Assistant Undersecretary for Roads at the Ministry of Works.

This initiative is part of a broader effort to improve Bahrain's road network, ensuring smoother traffic flow in alignment with the Government Programme (2023-2026), aimed at benefiting the nation and its citizens.

AlTajir explained that the project involves constructing a dual carriageway, spanning 3.4 km, connecting Hunainiyah Avenue from the north to Al Muaskar Highway in the south.

The plan includes developing intersections, providing side pavements, establishing a rainwater drainage network, enhancing lighting, and implementing traffic safety measures. Additionally, a treated water line for landscaping and irrigation will be installed.

He added that the project aims to provide additional access points for those heading to Hunainiya, East Riffa, and surrounding areas, thereby easing off congestion in the region

Hungary borrowed one billion euros ($1.1 billion) from Chinese banks earlier this year, its debt management agency said yesterday, as the EU member state faces a difficult financial situation.

The Hungarian government did not announce the deal, which was first reported by the local financial news site Portfolio based on publicly available data.

Budapest took out a threeyear, floating-rate loan from Chinese banks on April 19, data on the Hungarian Government Debt Management Agency's website showed.

"The one-billion-euro loan agreement with the China Development Bank, the Export-Import Bank of China and the Hungarian branch of the Bank of China Limited will finance infrastructure and energy development, among other projects," the agency told AFP in a statement.

Sameer Nass, Chairman of the Bahrain Chamber of Commerce and Industry, met with an Indian business delegation at the Chamber's headquarters yesterday. The meeting was also attended by India's ambassador to Bahrain, Vinod K. Jacob. During the discussions, Nass emphasized the potential to enhance trade and investment between Bahrain and India, particularly in the food sector. He noted that Bahrain has a strong demand for diverse food products, while India has significant expertise in these areas. It was highlighted that India was Bahrain's sixth-largest export partner and seventh-largest import partner in 2023, with trade exceeding 1 billion US dollars that year. Khalid Najibi, the First Vice Chairman of the Bahrain Chamber, pointed out that the trade gap between the two countries is minimal. He noted that India represents a substantial market for Bahraini exports and is a major supplier of rice. Najibi emphasized the importance of building on current achievements and further developing Bahrain as a market for Indian products, both through imports and re-exports. Vinod K. Jacob, the Indian Ambassador to Bahrain, praised the Bahrain Chamber of Commerce and Industry for its efforts to enhance trade relations between the two countries. He also acknowledged the significance of the Memorandum of Understanding with the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry in strengthening these ties.

Russian and Chinese jets staged a joint patrol over far eastern Russia and the Bering Sea near Alaska but Moscow and Beijing stressed it was not aimed at any "third party".

Wednesday's flights, with nuclear-capable bombers, came days after Moscow said the United States sent its own strategic bombers close to Russian airspace.

Russia said its "Tu-95MS strategic missile carriers and the Chinese air force's Xian H-6 strategic bombers carried out an aerial patrol over the Chukchi and Bering Seas and the north Pacific Ocean".

The joint US-Canadian North American Aerospace Defense Command earlier said American and Canadian warplanes had intercepted two Russian and two Chinese bombers in international airspace near Alaska on Wednesday.

It said the bombers "remained in international airspace" and were "not seen as a threat". Moscow said the patrol observed international law and did not breach foreign airspace, adding that "at certain stages of the route, the aviation group was accompanied by fighter jets of foreign countries".

Rushdie attacker indicted on terrorism charges

New York, United States

The man accused of trying to kill the author Salman Rushdie has been charged with terrorism for allegedly acting on behalf of Hezbollah, according to documents unsealed Wednesday.

Hadi Matar, a 26-yearold American of Lebanese descent who was already charged by the state of New York for the 2022 stabbing attack, has now been indicted by a grand jury on three counts that include attempting to provide material to support a foreign terrorist organization, said the indictment dated July 17 but not unsealed until now.

That organization is Lebanon's Iran-backed movement Hezbollah, the US Justice Department said.

In August 2022 Rushdie lost sight in his right eye after the attack by a knife-wielding assailant at an arts gathering in New York state.

Us President Joe Bid-en told Americans Wednesday he quit the 2024 election to unite the country, saying in a historic Oval Office speech that it was time to pass the torch to "younger voices."

"I revere this office. But I love my country more," the 81-year-old said in an elegiac prime-time address to the nation urging his divided country to embrace democracy and shun hatred.

"The defense of democracy, which is at stake, is more important than any title," Biden said. "I have decided the best way forward is to pass the torch to a new generation. That is the best way to unite our nation."

In his first televised address since his stunning decision, Biden also hailed his Vice President Kamala Harris, 59, who is set to be the new Democratic presidential nominee.

"She's experienced. She's tough. She's capable," Biden said in just the fourth address of his presidency from behind the Resolute Desk -- and likely his last.

Keanu Reeves 'didn't write' new novel

Bang Showbiz | Los Angeles

eanu Reeves "didn't write Any" of his new novel.

The 'John Wick' actor has teamed up with one of his favourite authors, China Miéville, on 'The Book of Elsewhere', which is inspired by his own 'BRZRKR' comic books and features the series' protagonist, immortal warrior Unute aka B, but he left penning the story to his collaborator.

He admitted to The Guardian newspaper: "I didn't want to write the book. I wanted another creator to take that journey. So, ultimately, China has written the novel. It's not, like, we could look at page eight and say, 'Oh, I wrote
