Axed Bangladesh ex-skipper Tamim 'childish', says Shakib

AFP | Dhaka

Bangladesh cricket captain Shakib Al Hasan said teammate Tamim Iqbal's "totally childish" behaviour prompted his exclusion from the World Cup squad, the latest sign of simmering frustrations with the star batsman.

Tamim, 34, was left off the roster for the showpiece 50-over tournament starting in India next week, officially because of concerns over the back injury that has plagued him through the year.

He had just returned to the side for a home series against New Zealand after a two-month absence following his shock resignation in July, rescinded a day later after the personal intervention of Bangladesh's prime minister.

Tamim said after the World Cup squad was announced that he was fit enough to play but had refused a request by selectors to skip the opening match and bat down the order later.

"It is totally childish," Shakib told local broadcaster T-Sports yesterday evening, hours after Tamim's comments.

"A player should bat at any position for the team. Team first. It doesn't make any difference if you have made 100 or 200 and the team loses. What can you do with personal achievement? You want to make a name for yourself?"

Labuschagne in for Agar as Australia finalise World Cup squad

AFP | Sydney

Marnus Labuschagne has been drafted into Australia's Cricket World Cup squad with spinner Ashton Agar left out on Thursday after picking up a calf injury.

Labuschagne comes into the squad in the one change to the provisional 15-man group announced by Australia earlier this month as Travis Head keeps his place despite being ruled out for the start of the tournament after breaking his hand.

Five-time champions Australia will head to India with just one specialist spinner in Adam Zampa. Fellow leg-spinner Tanveer Sangha will stay with the squad until at least the end of the warm-up matches along with all-rounder Matt Short.

Labuschagne is rewarded following his rich vein of form in the recent ODI series against South Africa and India, averaging 60 across eight innings while scoring a century and two fifties.

He gives Australia extra batting cover in the absence of Head, whose left hand is expected to be in a cast for at least four more weeks.

"We have made the decision to carry Travis through the early stages with the aim of him being available around the mid-part of the tournament," said chief selector George Bailey.

"He has been a really important player in this ODI team and we are hopeful his return can provide a positive impetus as it gets to the business end of the tournament."

Miami, without Messi, lose US Open Cup final to Houston

AFP | Miami

The Houston Dynamo defeated Inter Miami 2-1 to win the US Open Cup yesterday with an injured Lionel Messi watching from the stands at DRV PNK Stadium.

Without Messi and his former Barcelona team-mate Jordi Alba, Miami struggled to compete with an enterprising Houston and could have little to complain about the outcome.

Miami co-owner David Beckham, who watched the game with his former Real Madrid team-mate Zinedine Zidane, had hoped for another night of celebration after the team's Leagues Cup triumph last month.

But Miami lacked intensity and ideas as they were given the runaround by Ben Olsen's impressive Houston team.

No clear explanation has been given for Messi's injury with references to "muscle fatigue" followed by talk from coach Gerardo Martino of "scars" from an old injury.

"It was not prudent for him to play, we couldn't even consider playing him for a few minutes because we would be taking risks," said Martino after the match.

The former Barcelona and Argentina coach said he expected Messi to feature at some stage in the upcoming five games that remain for Miami in the MLS regular season.
