

Deadly landslide

Landslides in India triggered by pounding monsoon rains struck tea plantations and killed at least 133 people yesterday, with at least 250 others rescued from mud and debris.

(Full story on page 6-7)

Russia condemns Israeli strike on Lebanon

AFP | Moscow

Russia accused Israel yesterday of violating international law after it struck a Hezbollah stronghold in the Lebanese capital Beirut.

"This is a gross violation of international law," Russia's foreign ministry told state news agencies.

Israel said the strike targeted a commander responsible for a Saturday rocket attack on the annexed Golan Heights that killed 12 children.

Pain and grief

Third child dies in UK knife stabbing spree

AFP | Southport, UK

A third child died yesterday from a mass stabbing at a Taylor Swift-themed dance event in northern England that Prime Minister Keir Starmer said "touches a nerve" with the whole country.

Starmer was among a stream of people to pay tribute at the site of Monday's knife attack in Southport, near Liverpool, that left five children and two adults with critical wounds. Three other children were hurt.

Laying flowers with hundreds of other wreaths, Starmer thanked emergency workers who responded to the stabbing spree and said: "I came here to pay my respects to the victims and families who are going through raw pain and grief that most of us can't imagine - I can't imagine, as a dad myself."

The victims, from left, nine-year-old Alice Dasilva Aguiar, seven-year-old Elsie Dot Stancombe, and six-year-old Bebe King. (AFP)

However, he was heckled by a handful of by-standers as he laid flowers, with one man shouting: "How many more people will die on our streets, prime minister?"

Nine-year-old Alice Dasilva Aguiar died in hospital early yesterday, police said. Bebe King aged six and Elsie Dot Stancombe aged seven were the two who died Monday.

Bahrain condolences with India over Kerala landslides

TDT | Manama

The Kingdom of Bahrain expressed its utmost sympathy and solidarity with the Republic of India following the major landslides that took place in the state of Kerala, which led to dozens of deaths and injuries.

In a statement, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs expressed its sincere condolences and sympathy to the Indian government and people, and the families and relatives of the victims, wishing a speedy recovery to all the injured.

