More than 70 killed in Ethiopia road accident AFP | Nairobi, Kenya

The death toll from a ⊥ road accident in southern Ethiopia has risen to at least 71 after a vehicle carrying a wedding party veered into a river, a local official said.

The truck careered into the water at around 5:30 pm local time (1430 GMT) on Sunday some 300 kilometres (180 miles) south of capital Addis Ababa in Sidama state.

The Sidama Police Commission Traffic Prevention and Control Directorate put the death toll "so far" at 68 men and three women.

"The accident was especially horrific as the river had a lot of big stones so most passengers, including the driver, were killed due to the impact," Wossenyeleh Simon, an official with the regional communications department, told AFP.

"Among the deceased are four people from the same family," he said.

He said that the driver had lost control of the "freight truck" -- which was carrying 76 people, including those heading to the wedding and day-labourers -- when trying to turn a tight bend ahead of a bridge.

"It was possible the truck was carrying people beyond its capacity as there were a scarce number of passenger vehicles operating during that day," he added.

"Repeated hostilities in and around hospitals have obliterated the health care system in northern Gaza, putting civilians at an unacceptably grave risk of going without lifesaving care," the ICRC said in a statement.

It called for the respect and protection of medical facilities in line with international humanitarian law.

"This protection is a legal obligation and a moral imperative to preserve human life," it added, saying hospitals were a lifeline for those sick or wounded in conflict.

024 proved to be a legacy-defining year for Arab MMA legend Hamza Kooheji. After being side-lined for two years due to a devastating injury. Kooheji made a triumphant return to the cage, securing two dominant victories.

Hamza's hiatus followed his decision win over Eduardo Mora at BRAVE CF 65 in Bahrain in 2022. During his time away, he focused on self-improvement and mentoring the next generation of MMA fighters in Bahrain. Once cleared to compete, Hamza wasted no time, returning to the regional circuit in August and securing a first-round knockout victory in Belarus.

The highlight of the year came just two days after his victory, with the release of the movie Hamza Kooheji: The Untold Story in Bahrain. Directed by Bahraini filmmaker Ahmed Bucheery, the film offers a close look into Hamza's struggles and successes throughout his career and is bound to serve as an inspiring documentary for MMA fighters and fans worldwide.

Hamza's dominant return in 2024, following a long injury layoff, has set the stage for an exciting 2025. The Pride of Bahrain now aims to bring the
